DAVID WARD'S PECULIAR DEATH.

He Fell to the Floor, Rupturing a Blood Vessel and Died Almost Instantly.

David Ward, an old soldier, residing alone at No. 14 North Noble street, died at 4 o'clock yesterday afternoon from the result of a peculiar accident. He was sitting in his room a few minutes before his death and was seen by people in an adjoining house to leave his chair and start to walk across the room. Reaching the center of the apartment he fell, striking his head against a chair. Persons who witnessed the accident ran to his assistance and asked him if he was hurt, receiving a negative reply. He was helped to his bed and died before a physician could be found. Coroner Beck, who viewed the body, announced that in falling Ward had ruptured a blood vessel which caused his sudden death. The dead man was sixty-five years old and was a pensioner. He has relatives somewhere in the State, but they have not yet been located.

POISONOUS INSECT POWDER.

Explanation of the Sudden Death of George M. Henn, of Haughville.

George M. Henn, aged forty-one years, living at No. 141 Sheffield avenue, Haughville, was taken suddenly ill Saturday night with strange symptoms. Dr. Kane was called in, and afterwards summoned Drs. Hodges and Deitch. The physicians were unable to relieve the sick man, and on Sunday night he died. His symptoms were those peculiar to poison, and yesterday Coroner Beck went out to investigate the case, but decided that, since the body had been embalmed, an autopsy would be

SIM COY'S TRIUMPH.

He Receives the Congratulations of the "Business Administration."

Hon, Sim Coy, Democratic nominee for Council in the Nixth ward, called at the City Hall yesterday morning to see his friend Mayor Sullivan. Hon. Sim wore a shining new beaver and was all smiles. He went from department to department, and received congratulations on his success in defeating Mr. White, the labor Democrat. "If the Democratic organ," remarked one Democrat, "had had time to print a few more editorials before the primary election Sim would have gotten the nomination by acclamation." The City Hall employes were laughing at the feeble attempt to down Coy. After the Council adjourned last night Councilman White, who was defeated for a renomination by Sullivan's man Cov. on Saturday, quietly started for his home, but he was not allowed to escape from the corridors until all the Democratic members had rounded him up in the doorway of the controller's office, where he was beseeched to return to the fold of the administration that had acted towards him in such a treacherous manner. Little Mr. Rassmann, the financier, tried to use heavy argument, but it seemed in the gaslight that the defeated labor representative was looking down on the financier with conbear on Mr. White, and one by one the Democratic members tried their hands, but with no appreciable effect. They tried to cajole, at times to browbeat, and then to believe any more campaign promises by the

COULDN'T DO ANYTHING. Council Meeting Comes to Naught Because

the Works Board Didn't Meet, The absence of a majority of the members of the Board of Works from the city necessitated an almost fruitless meeting of the City Council last night, and an adjournment soon followed the convening. It was the intention to pass an ordinance allowing the street-car company to put its poles on Pennsylvania and Talbott avenue on the sides of the streets instead of in the center. The Board of Works, however, failed to draw up the contract, and so the Council adjourned, after hearing a call signed by Emil Rassmann and others for a special meeting on Wednesday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock, to consider the matter. It was also expected that the resolution improvement for North Illinois street would come up before the Council, in order to Works, but the matter was not even broached. The administration thinks that if the Council takes such action, in view of the "law department's" recent decision, the property owners would not have a case in court to delay the work of as-phalting the street. Councilman Rasemann introduced the new ordinance which Cadi Buskirk suggested yesterday morning at the august session of his court. It provides that bootblacks or newsboys must not loiter on the streets, wrestle, swing their boxes, scuffle or do anything else that does not conform with the Eighth ward financier's ideas of street deportment. The ordinance went on its first reading. The Mayor notified the Council that he had approved the ordinances providing for the temporary loan, for the naming of an alley in the northern part of the city, for the redistricting of the city and for the establishment of the new ambulance

BOARD OF SAFETY.

Number of Minor Affairs Considered at Yesterday's Meeting.

The Board of Safety met yesterday morning, but the members' duties for the day were anything but onerous. Some one had told Building Inspector Fitchey about some dangerous trees at street curbs, and he asked the board what he should do in the premises. President Hawkins first remarked that it might be well to get an opinion from the city attorney, as that official had not had much to do recently in giving opinions; but after awhile it was decided to notify the people who live near the trees to have them removed. In case the order of the board is not complied with in five days, the building inspector is to report the negligence to the board and that body will take proper action. Commissioner Catterson spoke of a dangerous tree on Massachusetts avenue.

There were a large number of complaints before the board of debts that had not been paid by firemen and policemen, and this matter seemed to worry the board a great deal. It is said that some of the Democratic politicians in the fire department feel that they can let their debts go over at this particular juncture in polit-icul affairs. The board did not consider the petition of the police for furloughs during the summer months, but this matter will come up next week. The board is making inquiries as to the system in vogue in other large cities of the country in granting vacations to policemen. Mrs. Anna Hamley, of Peru street, made complain that Jungolaus & Schumacher obstructed the street in front of where she lived by piling lumber, and the building inspector was ordered to look after the matter. Upon the recommendation of Chief Webster a new fire alarm box was ordered at the corner of Pleasant and State avenue.

A petition from an encampment committee, asking that a detail of twenty police be made for the fireworks display during encampment week, on the grounds south of the Deaf and Dumb Asylum, was received, but no action was taken on it.

His Request Not Granted. The Board of Works failed to meet yesterday morning, although there was a large crowd of people gathered in the corridors with grievances and complaints of various kinds. President Conduitt has gone to the world's fair, and Mr. Scherrer is in Tipton. Mr. Defrees showed up yesterday morning. but he was unable to transact business. Detective Thornton propped in, and facetiously remarked that he wanted to get Bright street paved with pancakes and have molasses run in the gutters, but Clerk Parker informed him that it was against the board's policy to pave the streets with pancakes in hot weather. It was entirely out of the question to have molasses run in the gutters of any of the streets except the ones paved with asphalt, which have a tendency to this sort of thing when the thermometer gets up towards one hundred degrees. Mr. Scherrer will probably get back from Tipton in time to have another board meeting

Commercial Cub Restaurant.

The Commercial Club restaurant was formally opened yesterday, and its first day's business was a phenomenal one.

Manager Mortimer, who came to this city with recommendations from some of the first hostelries of New York and Boston, was more than enthusiastic over the prospect, and confident that it was going to be a success. The dining room is on the seventh floor of the building, and the tables are situated by open windows, which extend from the floor of the room to its ceiling, and which make it cool and delightful. A business men's lunch will be served between the hours of 11 and o'clock, and a regular bill of fare at all other hours during the day. Everything is new, and everything is clean.

AN IMPORTANT ADMISSION

Annie Wagner Tells a Caller that She Bought the Poison at Borst's Store.

Says It Was to Kill Bedbugs-Evidently Two Batches of the Drug Will Figure in the Koesters Murder Trial.

Annie Wagner, in a conversation with a German lady at the jail on Sunday afternoon, made an admission that seems a very important one in the future disposition of her case. The caller brought Annie to a discussion of the crime with which the girl is charged, and questioned her in a rather adroit way. After a while the prisoner admitted that she had bought a box of poison at Borst's drug store, but she said it was poison for bedbugs. She detailed how she had obtained the box of Rough on Rats from her sister a long time before the deaths in the Koesters family began to excite suspicion. Nearly all the poison in this box was used. Annie did not say that the house was infested with bedbugs when she was first arrested, nor has she heretofore made any statements showing that there were two boxes of poison in the case. She denied that she had bought the box of Rough on Rats at Borst's drug store. From her statement to her caller, on Sunday, the theory is advanced that the prisbox for the deaths of those that were first killed, and then, finding that she did not have enough of the stuff to kill all of them, she went to the drug store and bought the other box. In the box found by the coroner and party was a considerable quantity of the poison, and it seemed that not more than a spoonful of the stuff had been taken out. The caller talked to Annie in German, but when she began to question the girl more closely she closed up, having become suspicious as to the object of the caller's

STATE MILITIA CAMP.

Preparations for the Week of Work at Terre Haute-Will Leave Thursday Night.

The busiest spot in the Statehouse at present is at the Adjutant-general's office, where the work of preparation for the State camp at Terre Haute, this week and next, is under way. Quartermaster-general Compton is besieged with militiamen on all sides, this one wanting this and the other that.

The camp will be situated five miles east of Terre Haute, at Forest Park, which contains 160 acres, and which is said to be delightful place. There will be no easy access to town, it being fully three miles from the end of the electric street-car line, and it was chosen on that account.

It is expected that there will be about 2,200 men in camp, divided into four infantry regiments, and one artillery. The camp will be under the command of Brigadier General McKee, and Adjutant-general Robbuss will appearant the Governor al Robbins will represent the Governor.
The First Regiment will be under the command of Col. John W. Evel. of Terre Hante; the Second under Col. James R. Ross, of this city; the Third under Col. James of this city; the Third under Col. James K. Gore, of Elkhart, and the Fourth under Col. George W. Gunder, of Marion. The artillery regiment will be under the command of Capt. James B. Curtis, of this city. The whole comprise about forty-six companies. Governor Matthews will attend the camp on Tuesday of next week, and will review the troops, there being a parade in the city in the evening.

All the troops in this part of the State will leave for Terre Haute Thursday night of this week, on a special train which will leave Indianapolis at 11:30 P. M. It will carry five companies from this city and a band. Companies from Lebanon, Anderson. Muncie, Marion, Elkhart, Warsaw, Oxford and Fowler will also be aboard. A morning train of July 21 will carry the companies from Portland and Rochester, New Albany, Jeffersonville, Bloomington, Greencastle, Decatur, Bluffton and Kokomo will go by the way of the Clover-leaf road to Frankfort, and thence to Terre Haute. Companies from LaPorte, South Bend, Bremen, Plymouth, Frankfort, Craw-Bend, Bremen, Plymouth, Frankfort, Craw-fordsville, Waynetown, Covington and Rockville will arrive in Terre Haute on Thursday night. CORPORATION ASSESSMENTS.

Board Learns Something About the Tumble in the Price of Beer-Yesterday's List.

The Board of Review met yesterday and assessed the following corporations. The reduction in the assessment of the Indianapolis Brewing Company was due to the testimony of officers of the company that beer which sold for $3 per barrel last year could be bought this year for $1.50 per barrel. The testimony showed that the stockholders had not received a single dividend upon their stock, and it was claimed that the company was operating at a loss. The Citizens' Street-railroad Company was not assessed, on account of their inability to answer questions as to the gross receipts:

of age, and has a wife and two children.

He lives at North Indianapolis. Space at the State Fair. A Big Turnout of Republicans Expected at the Precinct Meetings.

Apportionment of the Delegates - Sullivan's Weakness Among Business Men -Marion Club Election.

The call for the meeting of the Republican primaries on next Friday night has not yet been issued, but will be within the next few days. A number of precinct committeemen have not yet sent in the place of meeting in their districts, and it is desired that they do so at once. They should be sent to Room 34 in the When Block forth-The outlook at present is for a large turnout at the primaries on that night. There is every evidence that a feeling of enthusiasm pervades the rank and file of the party, and a widespread interest prevails over the selection of the candidates who are to make the municipal canvass. It was decided by the committee at its

Wants a Man of Backbone. Republicans are not by any means the only ones interested in the nominations to be made by the party Saturday evening. The drift of sentiment is anxiously inquired about by numerous Democrats who are not in politics, and appear to be anxious to have an administration of city affairs that will not prove a political machine. They want to vote against Sullivan if the Republicans nominate a man they can support. "I have one bundred dollars that I want to contribute to your campaign fund when your finance committee starts out,' said one of these to a Journal reporter yesterday. The reporter didn't faint, notwith-standing the fact that the speaker was a well-known merchant, whose Democracy has never been questioned.

"What's your grievance against your 'business administration?' " was asked. "Too much politics and too little nerve," was the reply. "I want to vote for a man who has some backbone and some business sense. I don't want a man who will change front two or three times a day, as Sullivan did during the street-car strike, and I don's want a man who will let any more city bonds be defaulted."

Marion Ciub Election. A full attendance is expected at the meeting of the Marion Club to-night. A nev secretary and a new member of the board of directors are to be elected.

WHOLESALE DELIVERY.

Six Boys in the Plainfield Reform School Make Good Their Escape.

Six young prisoners, three negroes and three white boys, confined at the Reform School at Plainfield, escaped from the guards yesterday evening, and, skillfully eluding all efforts at arrest, are scot free. Four of the escaped youngsters have homes in this city, and were doing time at the school for various petty offenses. The Indianapolis prisoners were: Albert Walters, colored, aged fifteen, home on Orange street; Arthur May, colored, aged thirteen, home at No. 82 Muskingum street; John Newlin, colored, aged fourteen, home No. 32 Drake street; Earnest Romans, white, aged fourteen, home No. 204 Blake street, The other two boys resided outside of the city, and their names were not learned. The delivery occurred between 4 and 5 o'clock, while the overseers of the institution had the prisoners at their various occupations. The first break for liberty was made by two boys engaged in chopping wood, who broke from the inclosure in which they were confined with an utter disregard for the warning of the guard. The excitement created for a time was so intense that the lads employed in the garden were for a few minutes abandoned and four of them embraced the opportunity to rid themselves of the confinement Dropping their implements they made a dash for the fence and once outside of the field it was impossible for the officials to intercept them.

At 9 o'clock last night Thomas Craigmile, an officer of the prison, arrived in the nished the police a description of the boys. It is thought that they will be easily recaptured, as each deserter is attired in the uniform of the school, which consists of a hickory shirt, overalls and blouse, Officer Craigmile was accompanied by John Crossley, a nineteen-year-old boy sent from Evansville some months ago for petit larceny. Crossley is known as a "trusty"
